

Please leave the no-call list as is. We should not allow businesses to solicit their own business in our homes. Businesses have the right to act against people soliciting on their property. We should have the same right. If we were to turn around and ask business owners as a whole to allow soliciting of business on their property to be lawful, I'm sure they the business owners would complain and not allow this to happen.